I am pleased to announce the appointment of Nancy J. Marks to the position of Deputy Associate Chief Counsel and Deputy Division Counsel (Tax Exempt and Government Entities), effective December 5, 1999.

Ms. Marks received her J.D. degree (Magma Cum Laude) from Suffolk University Law School in 1981 and her B.A. from the University of Massachusetts/Boston State College. She began her legal career with the Office of Chief Counsel in 1981 in the Interpretative Division. She then served several years as a Trial Attorney with the United States Department of Justice before returning, at the end of 1984, to the Office of Chief Counsel in the Employee Plans and Exempt Organizations Division (the predecessor to the current Employee Benefits and Exempt Organizations, [EBEO], office). While in the EBEO Division, Ms. Marks has held several key positions covering all aspects of tax administration including legislation, regulatory drafting, formulation of both general and case specific guidance, litigation and program implementation. In 1994, Ms. Marks was appointed to the Senior Executive Service as the Deputy Associate Chief Counsel (Employee Benefits and Exempt Organizations).

Originally from Massachusetts, Ms. Marks currently resides in Arlington, Virginia, and is a member of the Bar in the state of Massachusetts. Additionally, she is a member of the adjunct faculty of Georgetown University School of Law's Graduate Tax Program.

I know you will join me in extending congratulations to Ms. Marks on her selection to this organization.
