Dear

This letter responds to a letter from your authorized representative dated August 2, 2000, as well as subsequent correspondence, submitted on behalf of Company, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding Company's late S corporation election. Company represents the following facts.

FACTS

Company was incorporated in State on Date with two Shareholders. Company represents that it intended to be an S corporation from inception, but for reasons stated in the ruling request, Form 2553 (Election by a Small Business Corporation) was not timely filed. Company has filed Form 1120S (U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation) for its first tax year.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1362(b)(1) provides in general that an election by a small business corporation under § 1362(a) to be an S corporation may be made for any tax year--

(A) at any time during the preceding tax year, or

(B) at any time during the tax year and on or before the 15th day of the 3d month of the tax year.

Section 1362(b)(3) provides that if--

(A) a small business corporation makes an election under § 1362(a) for any tax year, and

PLR-115957-00

(B) that election is made after the 15th day of the 3d month of the tax year and on or before the 15th day of the 3d month of the following tax year, then that election shall be treated as made for the following tax year.

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if--

(A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any tax year (determined without regard to § 1362(b)(3)) after the date prescribed by this subsection for making the election for that tax year or no such election is made for any tax year, and

(B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make the election, the Secretary may treat such election as timely made for that tax year (and § 1362(b)(3) shall not apply).

Based solely on the facts as represented by Company in this ruling request, we conclude that there was reasonable cause for Company's failure to make a timely S corporation election. Therefore, we rule that Company's late election under § 1362(a) shall be treated under § 1362(b)(5) as timely filed for its first tax year beginning Date. This ruling is contingent, however, on Company filing Form 2553 with the appropriate service center no later than 60 days from the date of this letter. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553.

Except for the specific ruling above, no opinion is expressed or implied concerning the federal income tax consequences of the facts of this case under any other provision of the Code. Specifically, no opinion is expressed on whether Company otherwise is eligible to be an S corporation.

Under a power of attorney on file with this office, we are sending a copy of this letter to your authorized representative.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. According to § 6110(k)(3), this ruling may not be used or cited as precedent.

Sincerely,
MARY BETH COLLINS
Assistant to the Chief, Branch 3
