Dear :

This replies to a letter dated July 3, 2001, in which Taxpayer requests an extension of time under Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3 to file annual certifications pursuant to former Treas. Reg. § 1.367(a)-3T(g)(5)(i) for Tax Years (1) and (2). The information submitted for consideration is substantially as set forth below.

The ruling contained in this letter is predicated upon facts and representations submitted by the taxpayer and accompanied by a penalty of perjury statement executed by an appropriate party. This office has not verified any of the material submitted in support of the request for a ruling. Verification of the factual information, representations, and other data may be required as a part of the audit process.

Annual certifications as provided under § 1.367(a)-3T(g)(5)(i) should have been attached to Taxpayer's federal tax returns filed for Tax Years (1) and (2).

Individual A is the Director of Taxes for Taxpayer. Individual A's affidavit describes the circumstances surrounding the failure to attach the annual certifications to Taxpayer's federal income tax returns for Tax Years (1) and (2). The affidavit establishes that Taxpayer relied upon Individual A as he was responsible for overseeing the filing of Taxpayer's tax returns for those years.

announcement.

Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-1(c) provides that the Commissioner has discretion to grant a taxpayer a reasonable extension of time under the rules set forth in § 301.9100-3 to make a regulatory election under all subtitles of the Internal Revenue Code except subtitles E, G, H, and I.

Treas. Reg. § 301.9100-3(a) provides that requests for relief subject to this section will be granted when the taxpayer provides the evidence (including affidavits described in § 301.9100-3(e)) to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the taxpayer acted reasonably and in good faith, and the grant of relief will not prejudice the interests of the Government.

In the present situation, former § 1.367(a)-3T(g)(5)(i) fixed the time to file the annual certifications. Therefore, the Commissioner has discretionary authority under § 301.9100-1(c) to grant Taxpayer an extension of time, provided that Taxpayer satisfies the standards set forth in § 301.9100-3(a).

Based on the facts and circumstances of this case, we conclude that Taxpayer satisfies § 301.9100-3(a). Accordingly, Taxpayer is granted an extension of time until 30 days from the date of this ruling letter to file the annual certifications pursuant to former § 1.367(a)-3T(g)(5)(i) for Tax Years (1) and (2). The granting of an extension of time is not a determination that Taxpayer is otherwise eligible to file the annual certifications. § 301.9100-1(a).

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. I.R.C. § 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

A copy of this ruling letter should be associated with the annual certifications.

No ruling has been requested, and none is expressed, as to the application of any other section of the Code or regulations to the facts presented.

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file in this office, a copy of this ruling letter is being furnished to Taxpayer.

Sincerely,
Allen Goldstein
