Instructions

You must file Form 706-CE before IRS can allow a credit for foreign death taxes claimed on Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return. See Form 706 instructions for how to figure the credit.

Prepare three copies of Form 706-CE for each foreign death tax for which you are claiming credit. Send the original form and one copy to the foreign government to whom you paid the tax. Ask that office to certify the form and send it to the District Director of Internal Revenue shown on the front. Keep the third copy for your records.

If the foreign government refuses to certify Form 706-CE, you, as executor, must file it directly with the District Director shown on the front. Complete the entire form, except the certification. Attach a statement under penalties of perjury to explain why the foreign government did not certify it. In addition, attach a copy of the foreign death tax return. Also attach a copy of the receipt or cancelled check for the payment of the foreign death tax.

If you or any other person receives a refund of any of the foreign death tax for which you are claiming this credit, you or the person receiving the refund must notify the District Director within 30 days. Section 20.2016-1 of the Estate Tax Regulations describes what information to include in this notice. The persons who received the refund must pay any additional Federal estate tax due.

For a decedent who was a nonresident U.S. citizen, the District Director's address is: Internal Revenue Service, Assistant Commissioner (International), 950 L'Enfant Plaza S.W., Washington, DC 20024, U.S.A.
