Instructions for Transferor

Generally, persons responsible for closing a real estate transaction must report the real estate proceeds to the Internal Revenue Service and must furnish this statement to you. You must report the sale or exchange of real estate on your tax return even if you had a loss. If the real estate was your main home, file Form 2119, Sale of Your Home, with Form 1040 even if you had a loss or you did not replace your home. If the real estate was not your main home, report the transaction on Form 4797, Sales of Business Property, Form 6252, Installment Sale Income, and/or Schedule D (Form 1040), Capital Gains and Losses.

If you sold your home and (1) you did not own it for more than 9 years and (2) it was financed after 1990 under a Federally subsidized program (qualified mortgage bonds or mortgage credit certificates), you may have to recapture part of the subsidy. This will increase your tax. See Form 8828, Recapture of Federal Mortgage Subsidy, and Pub. 523, Selling Your Home.

Box 1.—Shows the date of closing.

Box 2.—Shows the gross proceeds from a real estate transaction, generally the sales price. Gross proceeds include cash and notes payable to you, notes assumed by the transferee (buyer), and any notes paid off at settlement. Box 2 does not include the value of other property or services you received or are to receive. See Box 4.

Box 3.—Shows the address of the property transferred or a legal description of the property.

Box 4.—If marked, shows that you received or will receive services or property (other than cash or notes) as part of the consideration for the property transferred. The value of any services or property (other than cash or notes) is not included in box 2.

Box 5.—Shows certain real estate tax on a residence charged to the buyer at settlement. If you have already paid the real estate tax for the period that includes the sale date, subtract the amount in box 5 from the amount already paid to determine your deductible real estate tax. But if you have already deducted the real estate tax in a prior year, generally report this amount as income on the "Other income" line of your tax return. For more information, see Pub. 523.
