General Instructions

A Change To Note.—For 1996, the maximum amount of wages and tips subject to social security tax is $62,700.

Purpose of Form.—Use Form 4137 to figure the social security and Medicare tax owed on tips you did not report to your employer, including any allocated tips shown on your Form(s) W-2 that you must report as income. Also, use Form 4137 to figure the social security and Medicare tips to be credited to your social security record.

Who Must File.—You must file Form 4137 if you received cash and charge tips of $20 or more in a calendar month and did not report all of those tips to your employer. You must also file Form 4137 if box 8 of your Form(s) W-2 shows allocated tips that you must report as income.

Allocated Tips You Must Report as Income.—You must report as income on Form 1040, line 7, at least the amount of allocated tips shown in box 8 of your Form(s) W-2 unless you can prove a smaller amount with adequate records. If you have records, report as income the amount of tips your records show you actually received even if this amount is more or less than the allocated tips. Although allocated tips are shown on your Form W-2, they are not included in the wages, tips, and other compensation box (box 1) on that form and no income tax, social security tax, or Medicare tax has been withheld from these tips.

Tips You Must Report to Your Employer.—You must give your employer a written report of cash and charge tips if you received $20 or more in tips during a month. If, in any month, you worked for two or more employers and received tips while working for each, the $20 rule applies separately to the tips you received while working for each employer and not to the total you received. You must report your tips to your employers by the 10th day of the month following the month you received them. If the 10th day of the month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, give your employer the report by the next business day.

Employees Subject to the Railroad Retirement Tax Act.—Do not use Form 4137 to report tips received for work covered by the Railroad Retirement Tax Act. In order to get railroad retirement credit, you must report these tips to your employer.

Payment of Tax.—Tips you reported to your employer are subject to social security and Medicare tax (or railroad retirement tax), and income tax withholding. Your employer collects these taxes from wages (excluding tips) or other funds of yours available to cover them. If your wages were not enough to cover these taxes, you may have given your employer the additional amounts needed. Your Form W-2 will include the tips you reported to your employer and the taxes withheld. If there was not enough money to cover the social security and Medicare tax (or railroad retirement tax), your Form W-2 (box 13) will also show the tax due. For more details, see the instructions for line 51 of Form 1040.

Penalty for Not Reporting Tips.—If you did not report the tips you were required to report to your employer, you may be charged a penalty equal to 50% of the social security and Medicare tax due on those tips. You can avoid this penalty if you can show reasonable cause for not reporting these tips to your employer. To do so, attach a statement to your return explaining why you did not report them.

Additional Information.—For more details, get Pub. 531, Reporting Tip Income.

Specific Instructions

Line 1.—Include ALL cash and charge tips received. This includes the following:

- Total tips that you reported to your employer. Tips you reported, as required, by the 10th day of the month following the month you received them are considered income in the month you reported them. For example, tips you received in December 1995 that you reported to your employer after December 31, 1995, and before January 11, 1996, are considered income in 1996 and should be included on your 1996 Form W-2 and reported on line 1 of Form 4137. However, tips you received in December 1996 that you reported to your employer after December 31, 1996, and before January 11, 1997, are considered income in 1997. Do not include these tips on line 1.
- Tips you did not report to your employer on time or did not report at all. These tips are considered income to you in the month you actually received them. For example, tips you received in December 1996 that you reported to your employer after January 10, 1997, are considered income in 1996 because you did not report them to your employer on time.
- Tips you received that you were not required to report to your employer because they totaled less than $20 during the month.
- Allocated tips that you must report as income.

Line 4.—Enter only the tips you were not required to report to your employer because the total received was less than $20 in a calendar month. These tips are not subject to social security and Medicare tax.

Line 9.—If line 5 includes tips you received for work you did as a Federal, state, or local government employee and your pay was subject only to the 1.45% Medicare tax, subtract the amount of those tips from the line 5 amount only for the purpose of comparing lines 5 and 8.

Do not reduce the actual entry on line 5. Enter "1.45% tips" and the amount you subtracted on the dotted line next to line 9.
