

Instructions for Form 8839

Qualified Adoption Expenses

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

You may be able to take the adoption credit if you paid qualified adoption expenses in:

- 1997, or
- 1998 and the adoption was final in or before 1998.
 Use Form 8839 to figure the amount of your credit.

If you received any employer-provided adoption benefits for 1998, you MUST use Form 8839 to figure the amount, if any, of benefits you may exclude from your income on line 7 of Form 1040 or Form 1040A. You need to complete Part III of Form 8839 before you can figure the credit, if any, in Part II.

Caution: Special rules apply if you paid expenses or received benefits in connection with the adoption of an eligible foreign child. See the instructions for line 1, column (e), for details.

Definitions

Eligible Child

An eligible child is:

- Any child under age 18. If the child turned 18 during the year, the child is an eligible child for the part of the year he or she was under age 18.
- Any disabled person not able to care for himself or herself.

Caution: If you and another person adopted or tried to adopt an eligible child, see the instructions for line 2 (or line 17 if applicable) before you enter an amount on that line.

Employer-Provided Adoption Benefits

These are amounts your employer paid directly to either you or a third party for qualified adoption expenses. Your salary may have been reduced to pay for these benefits. Employer-provided adoption benefits should be shown in box 13 of your 1998 W-2 form(s) with code T.

Qualified Adoption Expenses

For purposes of the credit, these are the reasonable and necessary expenses directly related to, and for the principal purpose of, the legal adoption of an eligible child.

Qualified adoption expenses include:

- Adoption fees.
- Attorney fees.
- Court costs.
- Travel expenses (including meals and lodging) while away from home.

Qualified adoption expenses do not include expenses:

 For which you received funds under any state, local, or Federal program.

- That violate state or Federal law.
- For carrying out a surrogate parenting arrangement.
- For the adoption of your spouse's child.
- Paid or reimbursed by your employer or any other person or organization.
- Paid before 1997.
- Allowed as a credit or deduction under any other provision of Federal income tax law.

Who May Take the Adoption Credit or Exclude Employer-Provided Adoption Benefits?

You may take the credit or exclusion if all three of the following apply.

- 1. Your filing status is Single, Head of household, Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, or Married filing jointly. However, if your filing status is Married filing separately, see Married Persons Filing Separate Returns below.
- 2. Your modified AGI (adjusted gross income) is less than $115,000. To figure your modified AGI, see the instructions for line 8 (for the credit) or line 24 (for the exclusion).
- 3. You report the required information about the eligible child on line 1.

Caution: Special rules apply if the eligible child is a foreign child. See the instructions for line 1, column (e), for details.

Married Persons Filing Separate Returns

You may take the credit or exclusion if you meet items 2 and 3 listed above and all of the following apply.

- You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 1998.
- The eligible child lived in your home more than half of 1998
- You provided over half the cost of keeping up your home.

Line Instructions

Line 1

Complete all columns that apply to the eligible child you adopted or tried to adopt. If you do not give correct or complete information, your credit (and any applicable exclusion) may be disallowed.

If you cannot give complete information because you tried to adopt an eligible child but were not successful or the adoption was not final by the end of 1998, complete the entries you can on line 1. Enter "See Page 2" in the columns for which you do not have the information. Then, on the bottom of page 2, enter the name and address of any agency or agent (such as an attorney) that assisted in the attempted adoption.

Child 1 or Child 2

If you tried to adopt one eligible child and you made more than one attempt to do so, combine the amounts you spent and enter the total on the "Child 1" line. Do not report the additional attempt(s) on the "Child 2" line. Complete the "Child 2" line only if you adopted or tried to adopt two eligible children. If you adopted or tried to adopt more than two eligible children, see More Than Two Eligible Children on this page.

Caution: If you filed a 1997 Form 8839 in connection with this adoption, enter your 1998 information on the same line (Child 1 or Child 2) that you used for 1997.

Column (a)

Enter the eligible child's name.

Column (c)

Check this box if the child was born before 1980 and was disabled. A child is disabled if the child is physically or mentally unable to care for himself or herself.

Column (d)

Check this box if the child was also a child with special needs. A child is a child with special needs if both of the following apply.

- 1. The child was a citizen or resident of the United States or its possessions at the time the adoption process began.
- 2. A state (including the District of Columbia) has determined that the child cannot or should not be returned to his or her parents' home and probably will not be adopted unless assistance is provided to the adoptive parents. Factors used by states to make this determination include:
- The child's ethnic background and age,
- Whether the child is a member of a minority or sibling group, and
- Whether the child has a medical condition or a physical, mental, or emotional handicap.

Caution: If you check this box, be sure to keep evidence of the state's determination in your records.

Column (e)

Check this box if the child was a foreign child. A child is a foreign child if he or she was not a citizen or resident of the United States or its possessions at the time the adoption process began.

Special Rules. If you paid qualified adoption expenses in connection with the adoption of a foreign child and the adoption was not final by the end of 1998, you cannot use those expenses to figure your 1998 adoption credit. Do not include them on line 5 of Form 8839. If the adoption becomes final in 1999, you may be able to take a credit for those expenses on your 1999 return.

If you received employer-provided adoption benefits in 1998 in connection with the adoption of a foreign child and the adoption was not final by the end of 1998, you must include the benefits in the total entered on Form 1040, or Form 1040A, line 7. Also, enter "AB" (adoption benefits) next to line 7. If the adoption becomes final in 1999, you may be able to exclude the benefits from your 1999 income.

Exclusion of 1997 benefits. If you received employer-provided adoption benefits in 1997 in connection with the adoption of a foreign child and the adoption was final in 1998, you may be able to exclude part or all of those benefits from your 1998 income. To find out if you can, complete Part III of Form 8839 through line 29. However, on line 18, enter zero. On line 20, enter the total amount of employer-provided adoption benefits received in 1997 and 1998. On the dotted line next to line 20, enter "97 AB" and the amount of 1997 benefits received. Then, use the worksheet below to figure the amount of any 1997 benefits you may exclude and the amount, if any, to enter on line 30.

More Than Two Eligible Children

If you adopted or tried to adopt more than two eligible children, fill in and attach as many Forms 8839 as you need to list them. Also, enter "See Attached" to the right of the Caution below line 1.

For Part II, fill in lines 2 through 6 for each child. But fill in lines 7 through 16 on only one Form 8839. The amount on line 7 of that Form 8839 should be the combined total of the amounts on line 6 of all the Forms 8839.

For Part III, fill in lines 17 through 20 and 22 for each child. But fill in lines 21 and 23 through 30 on only one Form 8839. The amount on line 21 of that Form 8839 should be the combined total of the amounts on line 20 of all the Forms 8839, and the amount on line 23 should be the combined total of the amounts on line 22.

Line 2

Enter $5,000 ($6,000 if the child was also a child with special needs). If you and another person each paid qualified adoption expenses to adopt the same child, the $5,000 limit (or $6,000 if applicable) must be divided between the two of you in any way you both agree. If the other person is your spouse and you are filing a joint return, this rule does not apply.

Line 3

If you filed a 1997 Form 8839 in connection with the adoption of the child, enter the amount shown on line 4 of that form for the child. If you filed a 1997 Form 8839 in connection with the adoption of another child, enter zero.
