

Purpose of This Package

Use this package to figure and pay your estimated tax. Estimated tax is the method used to pay tax on income that is not subject to withholding (for example, earnings from self-employment, interest, dividends, rents, alimony, etc.). In addition, if you do not elect voluntary withholding, you should make estimated tax payments on unemployment compensation and the taxable part of your social security benefits. See the 1998 instructions for your tax return for more details on income that is taxable.

This package is primarily for first-time filers who are or may be subject to paying estimated tax. This package can also be used if you did not receive or have lost your preprinted 1040-ES package. The estimated tax worksheet on page 4 will help you figure the correct amount to pay. The payment vouchers in this package are for crediting your estimated tax payments to your account correctly. Use the Record of Estimated Tax Payments on page 6 to keep track of the payments you have made and the number and amount of your remaining payments.

After we receive your first payment voucher from this package, we will mail you a 1040-ES package with your name, address, and social security number preprinted on each payment voucher. Use the preprinted vouchers to make your remaining estimated tax payments for the year. This will speed processing, reduce processing costs, and reduce the chance of errors.

Do not use the vouchers in this package to notify the IRS of a change of address. If you have a new address, complete Form 8822, Change of Address, and send it to the Internal Revenue Service Center at the address shown in the Form 8822 instructions. The service center will update your record and send you new preprinted payment vouchers.

Note: Continue to use your old preprinted payment vouchers to make payments of estimated tax until you receive the new vouchers.

Who Must Make Estimated Tax Payments

In most cases, you must make estimated tax payments if you expect to owe at least $1,000 in tax for 1999 (after subtracting your withholding and credits) and you expect your withholding and credits to be less than the smaller of:

1. 90% of the tax shown on your 1999 tax return, or
2. The tax shown on your 1998 tax return (105% of that amount if you are not a farmer or a fisherman and the adjusted gross income shown on the return is more than $150,000 or, if married filing separately for 1999, more than $75,000).

However, if you did not file a 1998 tax return or that return did not cover all 12 months, item 2 above does not apply.

For this purpose, include household employment taxes (before subtracting advance EIC payments made to your employee(s)) when figuring the tax shown on your tax return if either of the following is true.

- You will have Federal income tax withheld from wages, pensions, annuities, gambling winnings, or other income, or
- You would be required to make estimated tax payments to avoid a penalty even if you did not include household employment taxes when figuring your estimated tax.

Exception. You do not have to pay estimated tax if you were a U.S. citizen or resident alien for all of 1998 and you had no tax liability for the full 12-month 1998 tax year.

The estimated tax rules apply to:

- U.S. citizens and residents,
- Residents of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa, and
- Nonresident aliens (use Form 1040-ES (NR)).

If you also receive salaries and wages, you may be able to avoid having to make estimated tax payments on your other income by asking your employer to take more tax out of your earnings. To do this, file a new Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer.

You can also choose to have Federal income tax withheld on certain government payments. For details, see Form W-4V, Voluntary Withholding Request.

Caution: You may not make joint estimated tax payments if you or your spouse is a nonresident alien, you are separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or you and your spouse have different tax years.

Tax Law Changes Effective for 1999

Use your 1998 tax return as a guide in figuring your 1999 estimated tax, but be sure to consider the changes noted in this section. For more information on changes that may affect your 1999 estimated tax, see Pub. 553.

Modification of estimated tax safe harbor for some taxpayers. For 1999, the estimated tax safe harbor that is based on the tax shown on your 1998 tax return is 105% of that amount if you are not a farmer or a fisherman and the adjusted gross income shown on that return is more than $150,000 or, if married filing separately for 1999, more than $75,000.

Child tax credits. For 1999, the total of the child tax credit and the additional child tax credit can be as much as $500 for each qualifying child.

Student loan interest deduction. The amount you may be allowed to deduct on your tax return for interest that is paid during 1999 on a qualified student loan has been increased to $1,500.

IRA deduction restored for some people covered by retirement plans. You may be able to claim an IRA deduction for 1999 if you are covered by a retirement plan and your modified AGI is less than $41,000 if single, head of household, or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1999; $61,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er).

Expanded rules for business use of a home. Beginning in 1999, the deduction for business use of your home has been expanded to include the part of your home regularly and exclusively used for the administrative or management activities of your business. But only if you have no other fixed location where you conduct substantial administrative or management activities (even if another fixed location is available).

Foreign earned income exclusion. For 1999, the maximum foreign earned income exclusion amount has been increased to $74,000.

Self-employed health insurance deduction. For 1999, the self-employed health insurance deduction is increased to 60% of health insurance expenses.

Section 179 expense deduction increased. For 1999, the deduction to expense certain property under section 179 generally has been increased to $19,000.

Standard deduction for 1999. If you do not itemize your deductions, you may take the 1999 standard deduction listed below:

Filing Status	Standard Deduction
Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er)	$7,200
Head of household	$6,350
Single	$4,300
Married filing separately	$3,600

However, if you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's 1999 return, your standard deduction is the greater of:

- $700, or
- Your earned income plus $250 (up to the standard deduction amount).

An additional amount is added to the standard deduction if:

1. You are an unmarried individual (single or head of household) and are:
 - 65 or older or blind $1,050
 - 65 or older and blind $2,100
 2. You are a married individual (filing jointly or separately) or a qualifying widow(er) and are:
 - 65 or older or blind $850
 - 65 or older and blind $1,700
 - Both spouses 65 or older $1,700*
 - Both spouses 65 or older and blind $3,400*
- * If married filing separately, these amounts apply only if you can claim an exemption for your spouse.

To Figure Your Estimated Tax, Use:

- The 1999 Estimated Tax Worksheet on page 4.
- The instructions on this page for the worksheet on page 4.
- The 1999 Tax Rate Schedules on page 2.
- Your 1998 tax return and instructions as a guide to figuring your income, deductions, and credits (but be sure to consider the tax law changes noted earlier).

If you receive your income unevenly throughout the year (e.g., you operate your business on a seasonal basis), you may be able to lower or eliminate the amount of your required estimated tax payment for one or more periods by using the annualized income installment method. See Pub. 505 for details.

To amend or correct your estimated tax, see Amending Estimated Tax Payments on this page.

Line 1—Adjusted Gross Income. Use your 1998 tax return and instructions as a guide to figuring the adjusted gross income you expect in 1999 (but be sure to consider the tax law changes noted earlier). For more details on figuring your adjusted gross income, see Expected Adjusted Gross Income in Pub. 505. If you are self-employed, be sure to take into account the deduction for one-half of your self-employment tax.

Line 7—Additional Taxes. Enter the additional taxes from Form 4972, Tax on Lump-Sum Distributions, or Form 8814, Parents' Election To Report Child's Interest and Dividends.

Line 9—Credits. See the 1998 Form 1040, lines 41 through 48, or Form 1040A, lines 26 through 30, and the related instructions.

Line 11—Self-Employment Tax. If you and your spouse make joint estimated tax payments and you both have self-employment income, figure the self-employment tax for each of you separately. Enter the total on line 11. When figuring your estimate of 1999 net earnings from self-employment, be sure to use only 92.35% of your total net profit from self-employment.

Line 12—Other Taxes. Except as noted below, enter any other taxes, such as alternative minimum tax, tax on accumulation distribution of trusts, tax on a distribution from an MSA, and the tax on early distributions from (a) an IRA or other qualified retirement plan, (b) an annuity, or (c) a modified endowment contract entered into after June 20, 1988.

Include household employment taxes (before subtracting advance EIC payments made to your employee(s)) on line 12 if either of the following is true.

- You will have Federal income tax withheld from wages, pensions, annuities, gambling winnings, or other income, or
- You would be required to make estimated tax payments (to avoid a penalty) even if you did not include household employment taxes when figuring your estimated tax.

Do not include tax on recapture of a Federal mortgage subsidy, social security and Medicare tax on unreported tip income, or uncollected employee social security and Medicare or RRTA tax on tips or group-term life insurance. These taxes are not required to be paid until your income tax return is due (not including extensions).

Line 17. If you are a household employer and you make advance EIC payments to your employee(s), reduce your required payment for each period by the amount of advance EIC payments paid during the period.

Payment Due Dates

You may pay all of your estimated tax by April 15, 1999, or in four equal amounts by the dates shown below:

1st payment	April 15, 1999
2nd payment	June 15, 1999
3rd payment	Sept. 15, 1999
4th payment	Jan. 18, 2000*

*You do not have to make the payment due January 18, 2000, if you file your 1999 tax return by January 31, 2000, AND pay the entire balance due with your return.

Note: Payments are due by the dates indicated whether or not you are outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

If, after March 31, 1999, you have a large change in income, deductions, additional taxes, or credits that requires you to start making estimated tax payments, you should figure the amount of your estimated tax payments by using the annualized income installment method, explained in Pub. 505. Although your payment due dates will be the same as shown above, the payment amounts will vary based on your income, deductions, additional taxes, and credits for the months ending before each payment due date. As a result, this method may allow you to skip or lower the amount due for one or more payments. If you use the annualized income installment method, be sure to file Form 2210, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals, Estates, and Trusts, with your 1999 tax return, even if no penalty is owed.

Farmers and fishermen. If at least two-thirds of your gross income for 1998 or 1999 is from farming or fishing, you may do one of the following:

- Pay all of your estimated tax by January 18, 2000, or
- File your 1999 Form 1040 by March 1, 2000, and pay the total tax due. In this case, 1999 estimated payments are not required.

Fiscal year taxpayers. You are on a fiscal year if your 12-month tax period ends on any day except December 31. Due dates for fiscal year taxpayers are the 15th day of the 4th, 6th, and 9th months of your current fiscal year and the 1st month of the following fiscal year. If any payment date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, use the next business day.

Amending Estimated Tax Payments

To change or amend your estimated payments, refigure your total estimated payments due (line 16 of the worksheet on page 4). Then use the worksheets under Amended estimated tax in Chapter 2 of Pub. 505 to figure the payment due for each remaining payment period. If an estimated tax payment for a previous period is less than $\frac{1}{4}$ of your amended estimated tax, you may owe a penalty when you file your return.

When a Penalty Is Applied

In some cases, you may owe a penalty when you file your return. The penalty is imposed on each underpayment for the number of days it remains unpaid. A penalty may be applied if you did not pay enough estimated tax for the year, or you did not make the payments on time or in the required amount. A penalty may apply even if you have an overpayment on your tax return.

The penalty may be waived under certain conditions. See Pub. 505 for details.

How To Complete and Use the Payment Voucher

There is a separate payment voucher for each due date. The due date is shown in the upper right corner. Please be sure you use the voucher with the correct due date for each payment you make. Complete and send in the voucher only if you are making a payment. To complete your voucher:

- Type or print your name, address, and social security number in the space provided on the voucher. If filing a joint voucher, also enter your spouse's name and social security number. List the names and social security numbers in the same order on the joint voucher as you will list them on your joint return. If you and your spouse plan to file separate returns, file separate vouchers instead of a joint voucher.

- Enter on the payment line of the voucher only the amount you are sending in. When making payments of estimated tax, be sure to take into account any 1998 overpayment that you choose to credit against your 1999 tax, but do not include the overpayment amount on this line.
